

Disclosure of Interests

Because of the Competition and Markets Authority Order which came into force September 2021, we need to disclose a list of interests that could affect your choice of funeral director.

Ultimate Owner

- Ivor Thomas Funerals Limited is proudly owned by father and son, Ivor Neil Thomas and Mark Ivor Thomas.
- Ivor Thomas Funerals Limited is proudly run by Neil & Mark's family and specially selected others.

Price Comparison Websites

- We do not pay to appear on any price comparison websites.
- We do however pay a referral fee if you come to us through www.yourfuneralchoice.com.

Donation Register

- We do not make any donations worth more than £250 annually to any funeral or bereavement related organisation or individual.
- The closest we get to this is that we give our hired drivers a beer or box of chocolates (their choice) to take home with them because they work extremely hard for us and we thoroughly appreciate it.
- During the Christmas & New Year period, we give a token of appreciation to people and organisations that we have worked with during the year. This is because the sector we work in is hard, people need to be appreciated and we are pleased to do this.
- We do however donate more than £250 annually to local charities and organisations. We're in the process of moving our advertising budget away from traditional means as we think it can be put to better use in the community. If you would like to see if we can help, please get in touch with us through the details at the bottom of the page.
